

The best of farm
hand life!

It all started at Attra.org

- Rag & Frass Farm– Apprentice
- Last Updated On: January 6th, 2025 at 10:40AM MST

Contact information

- Farm Address:
15176 US Hwy 80
Jeffersonville, Georgia, 31044

Primary Contact: Julia Asherman Number: 617-777-0117

Email: ragandfrassfarm@gmail.com

Website: <http://www.ragandfrassfarm.com>

In a nut shell

- Internship Starts: March 1st (ish)
Internship Ends: November 30th-ish (we are open to apprentices staying on for additional seasons if it is a great fit)
Number of Internship Available: 1-2
Application Deadline: until positions are filled, but we are usually reviewing application and interviewing in Dec/Jan
Minimum Length of Stay: full season

The other important bits

- Are they doing something you'd like to be part of and learn about?
- How demanding is the position?
- Do they offer meals?
- Do they offer housing – if so what does it consist of – regular house, camping, in a barn, etc.
- Do they pay you?
- Do your research on them, the area and other bits that are important to your life – libraries/chiropractor/yoga

Ask a million questions!!!

- If it's not covered in their write-up – ASK!
- If it's not clear – ASK!
- Can you talk to some current or past interns –ASK!

Want to travel – Go WWOOFING!

- WWOOFUSA.ORG
- WWOOF.ORG.UK
- WWOOFINDEPENDENTS.ORG/EN/

What did I learn and where am I now?

- Farming is hard, whether you're the farmer or the farm hand.
- Sometimes you just have to give it a go!
- Sometimes things don't work out, have a Plan B!
- I'd do it all again and would love to!
- For now, I get little bits of joy locally!